PROFILE

B2B marketer in Singapore with 7 years across a startup, media platforms and a global industrial business. For the last three years I have owned regional go-to-market and pipeline programmes at Trelleborg Marine & Infrastructure, end to end: research and positioning, paid media and retargeting, nurture, events and webinars, and the collateral sales teams actually use, measured against lead definitions agreed with sales.

I work AI-first. I built and run a connected AI content system on Claude for posts, video, campaign tracking and reporting, and I produce video in-house. Earlier I ran digital marketing at Vuulr, a Singapore startup selling B2B content licensing, and was the sole marketing hire at Ansac Technology.

Launched on schedule.
- Full-funnel paid media, retargeting and ABM: ran LinkedIn campaigns as a staged funnel, with budget by stage, retargeting between stages and lead definitions agreed with sales. Retargeted consideration campaigns reached about 14 times the click-through of comparable non-retargeted campaigns.

- AI-native marketing operations: built a connected AI content system on Claude that plans, builds and routes posts, video, campaign tracking and reporting to brand rules, with approval before anything publishes; produced a Spanish corporate film in-house.
